SPECIAL RULES:

1. LIMIT TWO ENTRIES PER CLASS
2. Judging of Preserved Food Classes will be based on guidelines established in the Complete Guide to Home Canning produced by the USDA. This Home Canning Guide may be obtained online at http://www.uga.edu/nchfp/publications/publications_usda.html.
3. The following items are not eligible for entry in Preserved Foods: canned vegetables, mustard, freezer jams or any entry containing meat.
4. Entries must be from different batches. All entries must be home prepared by the exhibitor within one year of the opening date of the fair.
5. All jars must be STANDARD and SEALED. No paraffin seals. No freezer preserves. A STANDARD JAR is a container specifically designed for canning purposes. NOTE: Jars must be sealed with new RUST-FREE RINGS. Jar Size: As specified - No quarter pints. Entries with rust will be disqualified. (Jars should not be cooled upside down.)
6. Canning Methods: All preserved foods must be processed using one of the canning methods listed below:
 - A. Water Bath Method
 - B. Pressure Canner Method
 - C. Steam Canner Method
7. All entries must be labeled securely on bottom of all jars. Label must include: Exhibitor's name, the product name, the date of preservation, the canning method used, the processing time, the Division and Class.

Entries without this information will be disqualified.

Exhibitor's Name	Product Name
Date of Preservation	Method Used/ Processing Time
Division	Class

The canning method and processing time may be listed as follows:

EXAMPLE - If the Water Bath Method is used for 35 minutes, list as A/35 min. Or, if the Pressure Canner Method is used for 20 minutes, list as B/20 min. from list below.

8. Entry will consist of two jars of each product entered. One jar will be opened for judging, the other will be displayed
9. Opened jars may be picked up immediately following judging. NOTE: Due to storage limitations, the Fair will not be responsible for loss, spoilage, ect. If opened jar not picked up. Display jars and ribbons released Monday, June 21, 9:00 a.m. to 6:00p.m.
